I am Dan and I really appreciate your stopping by!

If you have come this far it must mean that your plans are in motion and it's time to book your photographer.

I am super excited to hear all about your cool ideas and your love story.

I am extremely humbled that you have considered me to be your photographer to capture your special day. This guide is here to help you gather all the information you need to make your decision and most importantly see if I am the best fit for you.

So, when you are ready, let's get the ball rolling!

About Me

As you may know, I'm Dan, a photographer from Boston, Lincolnshire.

I find photography fulfilling because I love making people happy. From start to finish, my photography process is all about laughter and smiles.

My motto is "Extra Mile Attitude Included," and I always go above and beyond to support you, from planning to the big day.

I have a relaxed style, preferring candid shots but stepping in when necessary to produce memorable images.

My editing style is light and crisp, with both colour and black-and-white options. I'm passionate about weddings and feel honoured to be part of such a special occasion.

When I'm not taking pictures, I'm spending time with my family and being a devoted fan of Marvel, DC, Star Wars, and Harry Potter.
